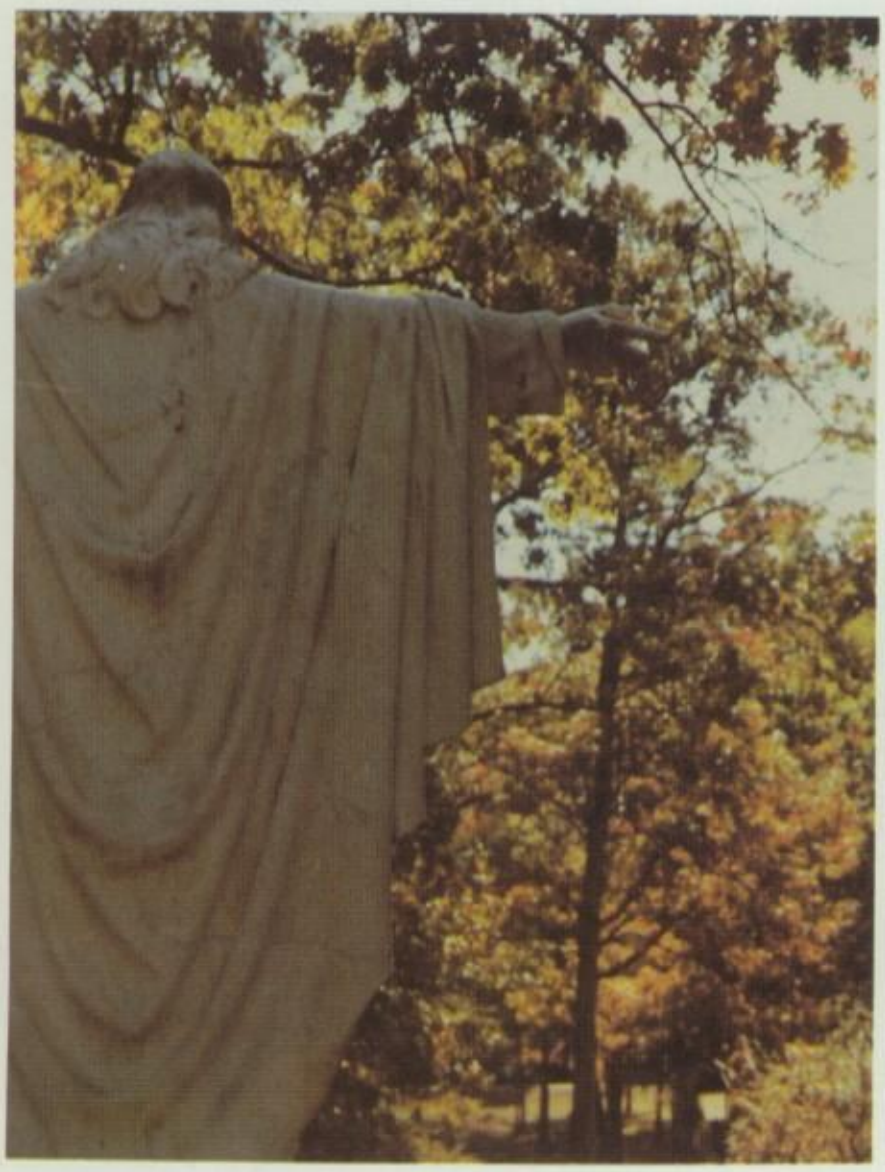
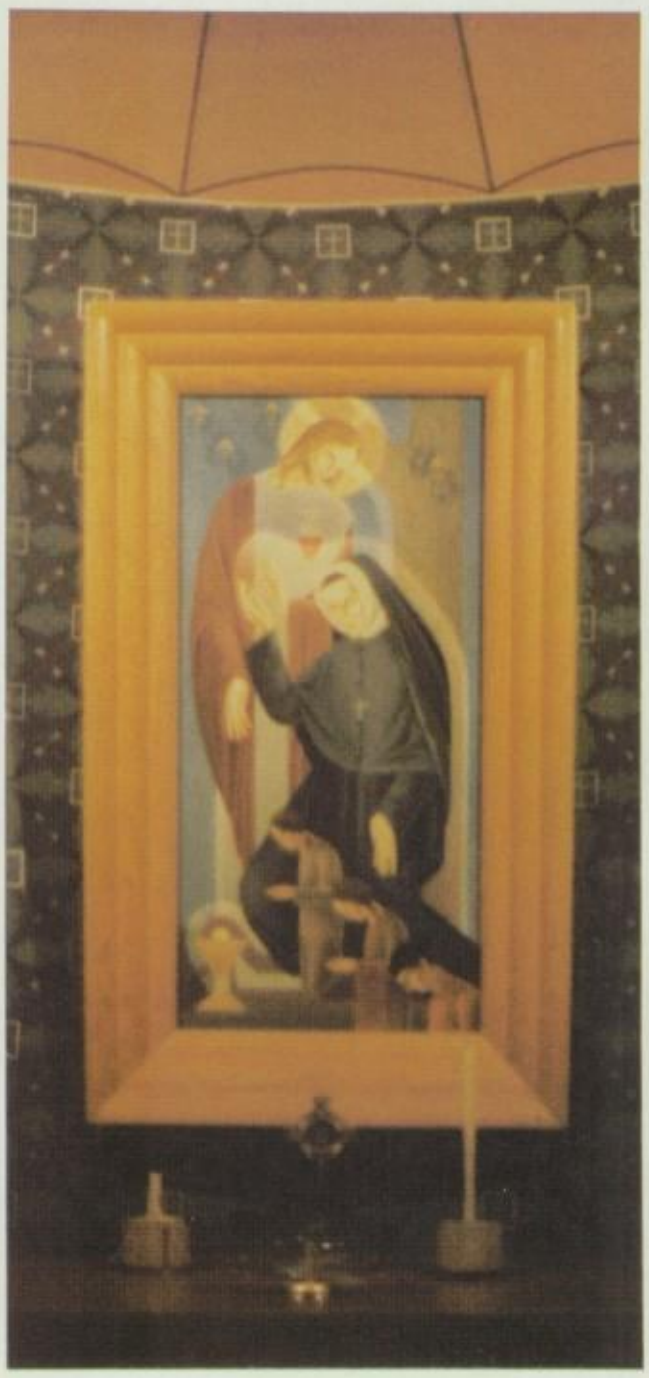
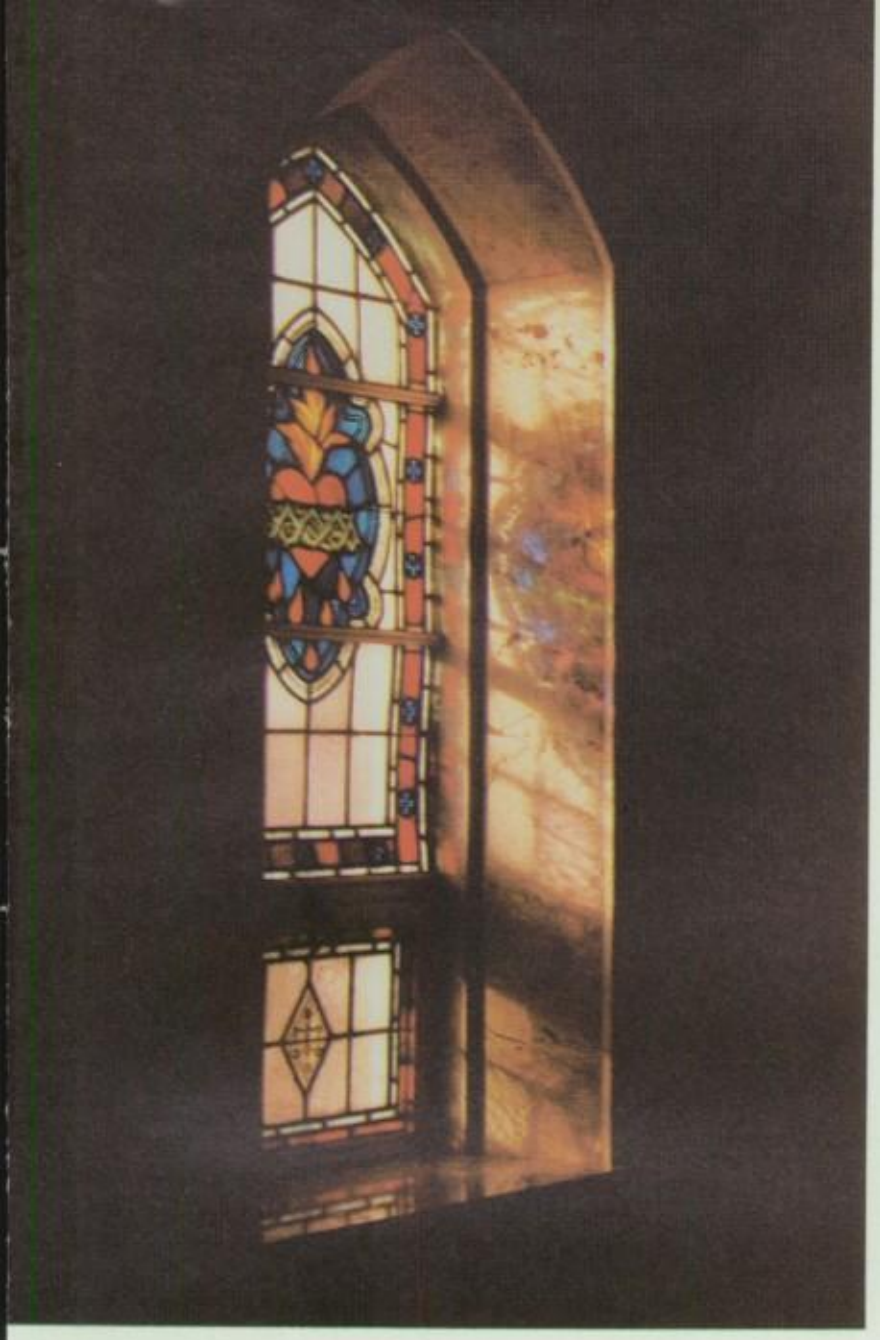
"The quality of a life is determined by its activities." (Aristotle) From the moment the doors first open in September to their close in June, every day is filled with an outpouring of spirit. The opportunity to become involved in a myriad of character building experiences is constantly present.

Our Spiritual Traditions







Tradition is the special spice which gives Villa Duchesne/ Oak Hill a flavor all its own. Throughout the decades, the spirit of the Sacred Heart has been the source of inspiration and has set the guidelines which influence the lives of all its children. These well established ideals give Villa Dechesne/ Oak Hill the originality which sets it apart from all its contemporaries.

To believe your own thought,
to believe what is true for you in your private heart is true for all men,-that is genius.

In voices strong we sing together
United in the Sacred Heart
Enduring union that asunder
No power on earth should ever part.
Come let us form our spirit gay and strong,
For life is great, a gift of beauty rare,
A wondrous way of winsome grace for us
To make us joyous, virtuous, nobly fair.

Sacred Heart Song

Nancy Marie Ciapciak

Time is not measured by the years that you live,
But by the deeds that you do and the joy that you give,
And each day as it comes brings a chance to each one
To love to the fullest, leaving nothing undone.

Helen Rice

Maria de Lourdes Desloge

. . . we must believe in ourselves or no one else will believe in us; we must match our aspirations with the competence, courage and determination to succeed; and we must feel a personal responsibility to ease the path for those who come afterwards.

Rosalyn S. Yalow

Christen Ann Dilschneider

Don't be dismayed at good byes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again.
And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.

Richard Bach

Martha Collins Erker

It hurts my heart

But I know I must
So we can grow.

Jimmy Messina

There's always Pooh and me.
"What would I do?" I said to Pooh,
"If it wasn't for you," and Pooh said,
"True, it isn't much fun for one,
but we can always stick together," says Pooh, says he.

And so one day
We fell in step.
It mattered not that each of us
Had travelled quite a way,
Or that the hour was rather late.
It just seemed very good
To walk together.

"Here's where we were sitting when we found the pebble!" said Raggedy Ann, "But I can't remember where I was when we made the wishes, or where I was when I buried the Wishing Pebble in the sand!"
"Then we must hunt all along the sandy stretch of shore!" said Georgie Groundhog . . . .
"We can find it easier if we search farther apart!" said Missus Muskrat . . . .
And soon all the friends were sending the sand in all directions as they dug for the magic wishing pebble.

Henry Ward Beecher

Where am I going? The high rooks call:
"It's awful to be born at all"
Where am I going? The ring-doves coo:
"We do have beautiful things to do."

A.A. Milne

Cecily Ann King

All of us united into one,
The Spirit of one being throughout the world.
We have all grown in the Family.
  And now it is time-
For us to gather up our courage
  And fly on to the world beyond.
To the challenges, the successes,
  And the failures.
Always knowing that we are not alone.

Byron

Mary Ellen McEnery

Memory is the treasury and guardian of all things.

Cicero

Lisa Ellen Meyer

When all is thought and said, the heart still overrules the head;
Still what we hope we must believe, and what is given us receive;
Must still believe, for still we hope that in a world of larger scope,
What here is faithfully begun will be completed, not undone.
We still must think, when we that ampler life together see,
Some true results will yet appear of what we are together, here.

But in my spirit will I dwell,
And dream my dream, and hold it true;
For though my lips may breathe adieu,
I cannot think the thing farewell.

Take your time, don't live too fast.
Troubles will come and they will pass . . .
Forget your lust for rich man's gold,

Follow your heart and nothing else . . .
Be a simple kind of man,
Or be something you'll love and understand.

Lynrd Skynrd

Nigerian proverb

Alice Maloy Rowan

Good-bye, dear heart, Be thou, as I am, glad.
Glad for the grace of loneliness and yearning
My heart, far faring from thee, Shall have had Ere its returning.
Pluck future joy from out this present pain;
Rejoice to know that these small seeds of sorrow
Shall be love's harvest when we meet again,
Some bright tomorrow.

T.A. Daly

Be who you must
That's a part of the plan
Await your arrival
With simple survival
And one day we'll all understand . . .

Character is like a tree and reputation is like its shadow.
The shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing.

Abraham Lincoln

Katherine Kelly Sheehan

Wasn't it yesterday we used to laugh at the wind behind us?
Didn't we run away and hope that time
wouldn't try to find us?
We don't have tomorrow, but we had yesterday.

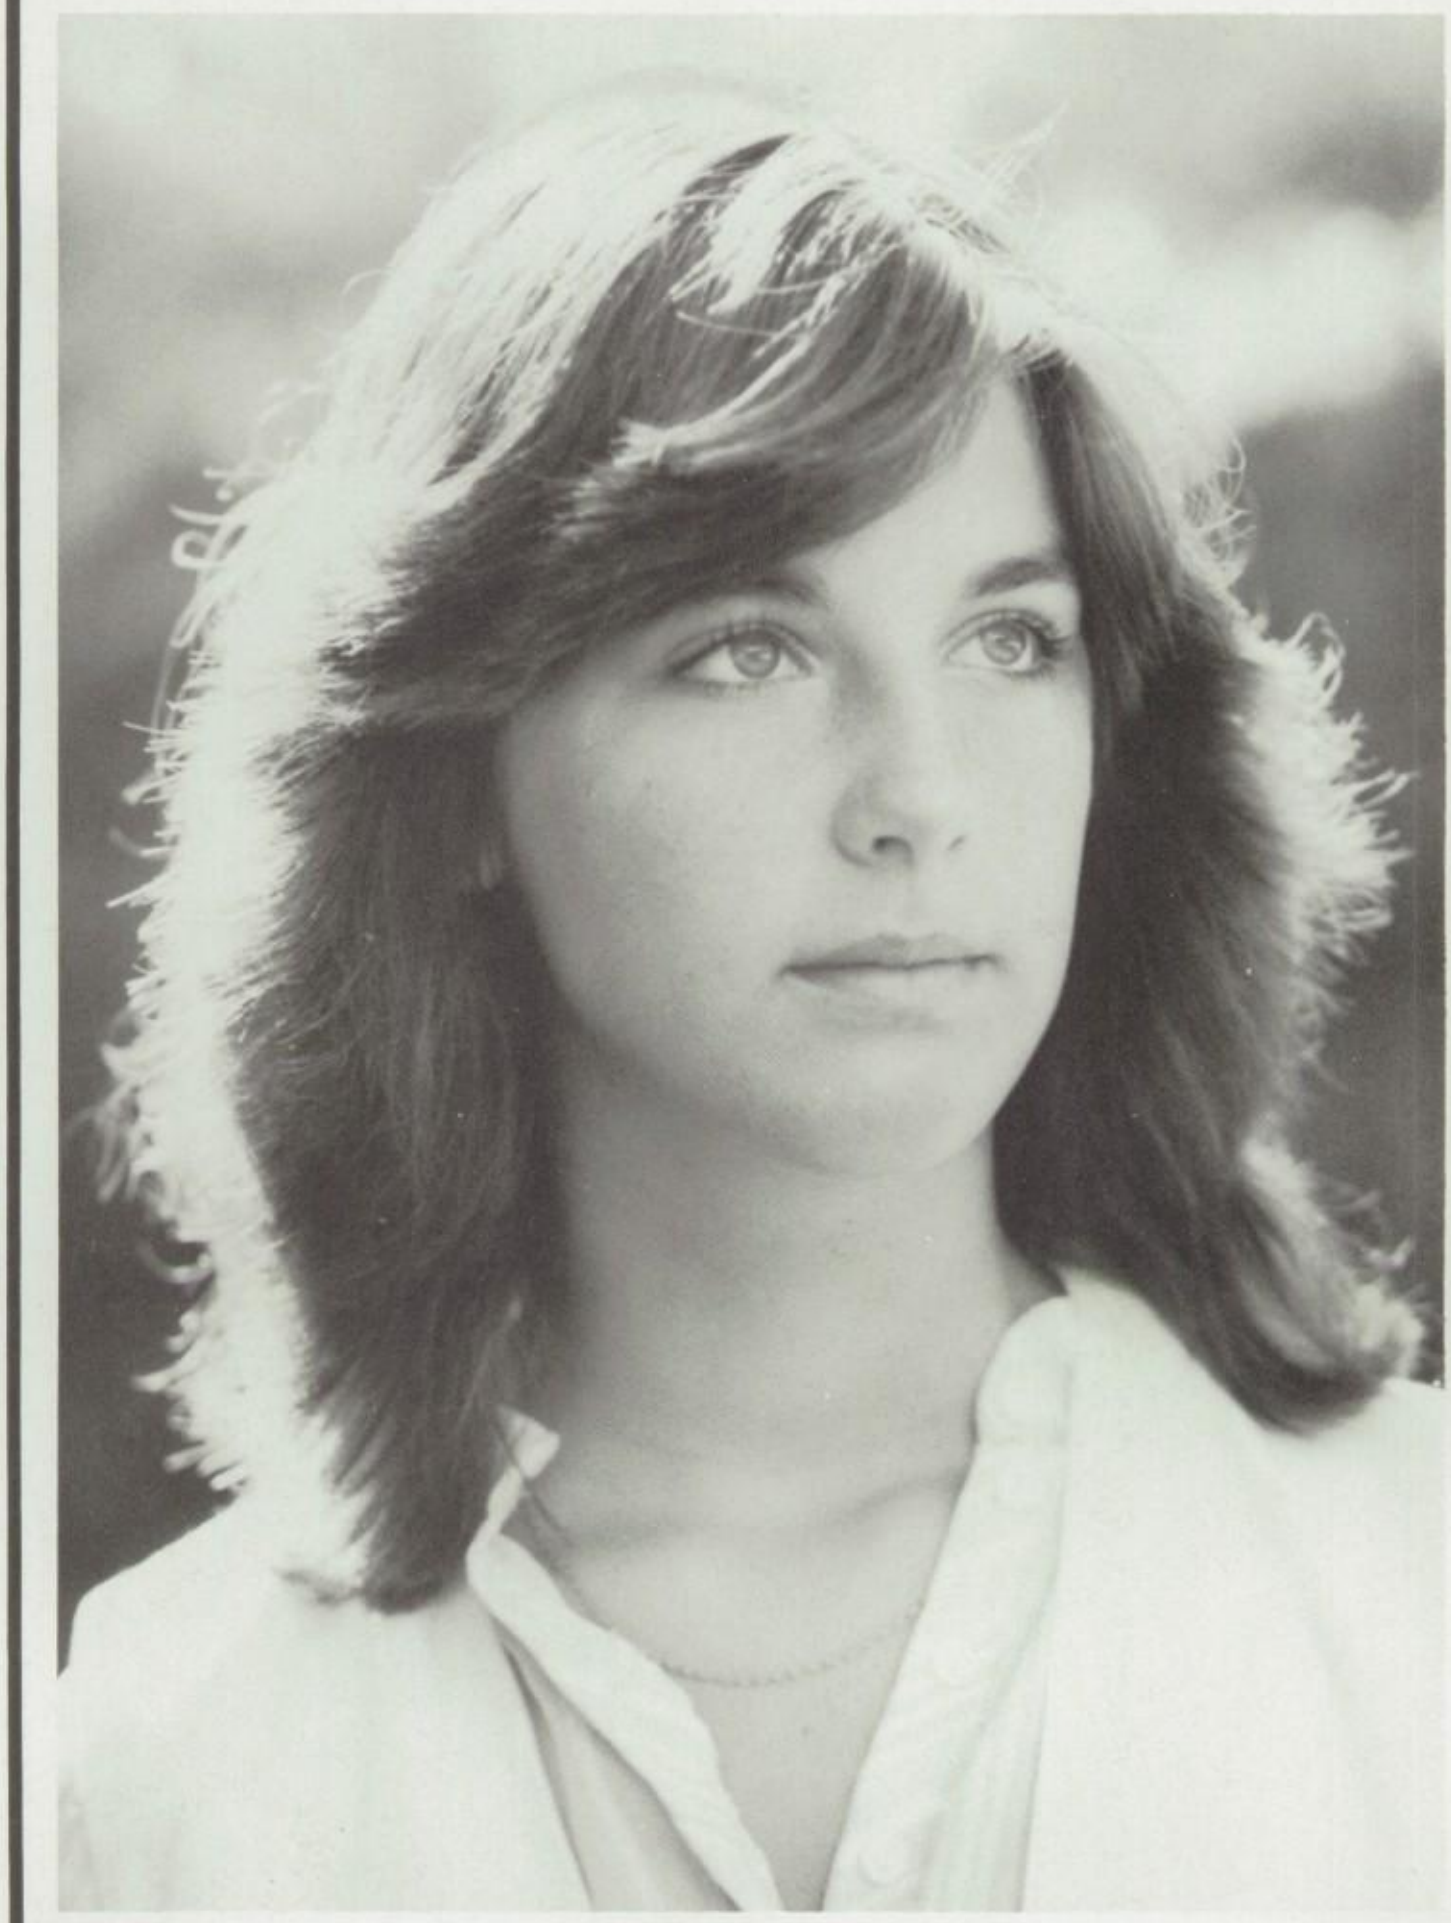
The thing that goes the farthest towards making life worth while,
That costs the least, and does the most, is just a pleasant smile.

W.D. Nesbit



Dawn Marie Sperling

Once in a vision I came on some woods and stood at a fork in the road. My choices were clear yet I froze with the fear of not knowing which way to go. One road was simple acceptance of life, the other road offered sweet peace.
When I made my decision my vision became by release.

Dan Fogelberg

Think in terms of bridges burned
Think of seasons that must end
See the rivers rise and fall
They will rise and fall again

I am only one.
But still, I am one.
I cannot do everything,
But still, I can do something.
And because I cannot do everything,
I will not refuse the something that I can do.

I am a part of all that I have met.
Yet all experience is an arch wherethrough
Gleams that untravelled world, whose margin fades
